

When I signed up for the Indiana do not call list, I thought that made it clear I did NOT want corporation solicitations sent to me. Now I find these same corporations want the government to tell us we have no choice. This is an outrage! The day corporate wants supercede an American's citizen's wants is a sad day for freedom indeed.